

Series: Blowing Up with Blessings!
Lesson Number 9: Powerful Blessings
Text: Deuteronomy 28: 13-14

Daily Fuse

In preparation for this week's lesson, meditate and study one of the scriptures below on each of the seven days leading up to the day of the teaching.

- Day one: I Will Begin to Exalt You - Joshua 3: 7
Day two: Wait and He Will Exalt You - Psalm 37: 34
Day three: I Will Be Exalted - Psalm 46: 10
Day four: Humble Yourself and Be Exalted - Luke 14: 11
Day five: Exalted in Due Time - I Peter 5: 6
Day six: God Has Highly Exalted Him - Philippians 2: 9

Megaton Text

You shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. "And the LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be above only, and not be beneath, if you heed the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and are careful to observe them. "So you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right or the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Explosive Points

Please fill in the blanks as you follow along.

Power to the People!

The final segment of this blessing buffet in Deuteronomy 28 has to do with power! Here, God does not only promise to bless us personally, but He promises to bless us in relation to others. If you love and obey the Lord:

1. You shall be the _____.
2. You shall be the _____.
3. You shall be _____.
4. You shall not _____ aside from these commandments.
5. You shall not _____ other gods.

Dynamite Discussions

1. According to verse 12, how do the people of God get in the position of being able to lend to many nations?

2. Practically speaking, what might it mean to say that the Lord has made you the head and not the tail?

3. According to verse 13, what are all of these blessing contingent upon?

4. What commitments are you now prepared to make in order to tap into these promised blessings of God?

*God, bless you. Have a great week and stay in the word!
