Blessed Productivity

When a person's productivity is blessed, then what God has place on them and in them does not end with them! That is, their blessings extend beyond their individual location and life.

The text which has our attention this week outlines four areas of productivity which God has promised to bless. They are:

1. _____ - The fruit of your body.
2. _____ - The increase of your ground.
3. _____ - The increase of your herds, cattle and flocks.
4. _____ - The basket and kneading bowl.
